BUILDING STRONG TEAMS

This three or six-hour workshop is for individuals, groups or businesses interested in building strong management teams that work together cooperatively, make better decisions faster, and communicate more honestly and directly.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This program explores the importance of self-discovery, understanding and reflection as necessities for the cultivation of effective leaders within our professional and personal communities. By exploring our past experiences in leadership, our own leadership styles (strengths and weaknesses), and character traits that elicit creativity, motivation and purpose, we can begin to forge new pathways to follow on the way to positive and impactful leadership.

OUTCOMES

- Self-reflection and awareness of personal leadership journey.
- Learn about team members' vision, values and motivation.
- Increase teamwork skills and creativity.
- Discover tools to build stronger relationships among staff.

PARTICIPANTS WILL

- Reflect personally to better understand the type of leader they believe they are and/or want to be.
- Learn how their past leadership experiences have shaped their ability to work with or lead others.
- Examine their strengths and weaknesses and explore how these traits/tools can direct their leadership path, personal work, work within a team, productivity and creativity.
- Cultivate their personal leadership style and forge new "pathways" to becoming an impactful leader.
