Dear Friends of Camp Daggett

Please consider this letter our personal invitation for you to make a difference in the future direction and preservation of Camp Daggett. Your participation in our upcoming feasibility study is extremely important!

Hueston Consulting, a philanthropic & marketing firm, will assist us in this feasibility study, and, your evaluations and judgments will surely advance this process. We seek your input so that we may make the best decisions possible to ensure the long-term sustainability of our camp and to provide for both new and existing program enhancement in the years to come.

My request is simple: Please set aside approximately 30 to 45 minutes in the coming weeks to personally participate in an interview with Dr. Fred Hueston, CFRE, at a time and place convenient to you. Grace Ketchum, Director of Development, will call you in the next week or two to schedule a time for your interview. Your interview is not a solicitation for funds. Hueston Consulting merely seeks your input and guidance.

PLEASE REVIEW THE ENCLOSED CASE SUMMARY IN PREPARATION FOR YOUR INTERVIEW.

Camp Daggett treasures your advice and counsel. Hueston Consulting will keep your responses entirely confidential. Thank you for your anticipated participation in our research, as we believe your partnership with us will address a long-term solution to preserving these remarkable facilities for generations of campers to come here.

Sincerely,

Andy Hayes
Executive Director

Rick Gross, Trustee
Chair, Donor and Community Relations Committee
